More 5★ reviews on autopilot

(n8n + Claude)

The Problem

200 happy customers. 11 reviews.

Happy customers leave and forget. The one unhappy customer writes a 1 star review at midnight. Asking everyone by hand feels awkward, so nobody asks.

1. Busy Saturday, 80 tables
2. "Food was amazing!" said at the counter
3. 0 new reviews on Monday
4. 1 new review: ★ "slow service"

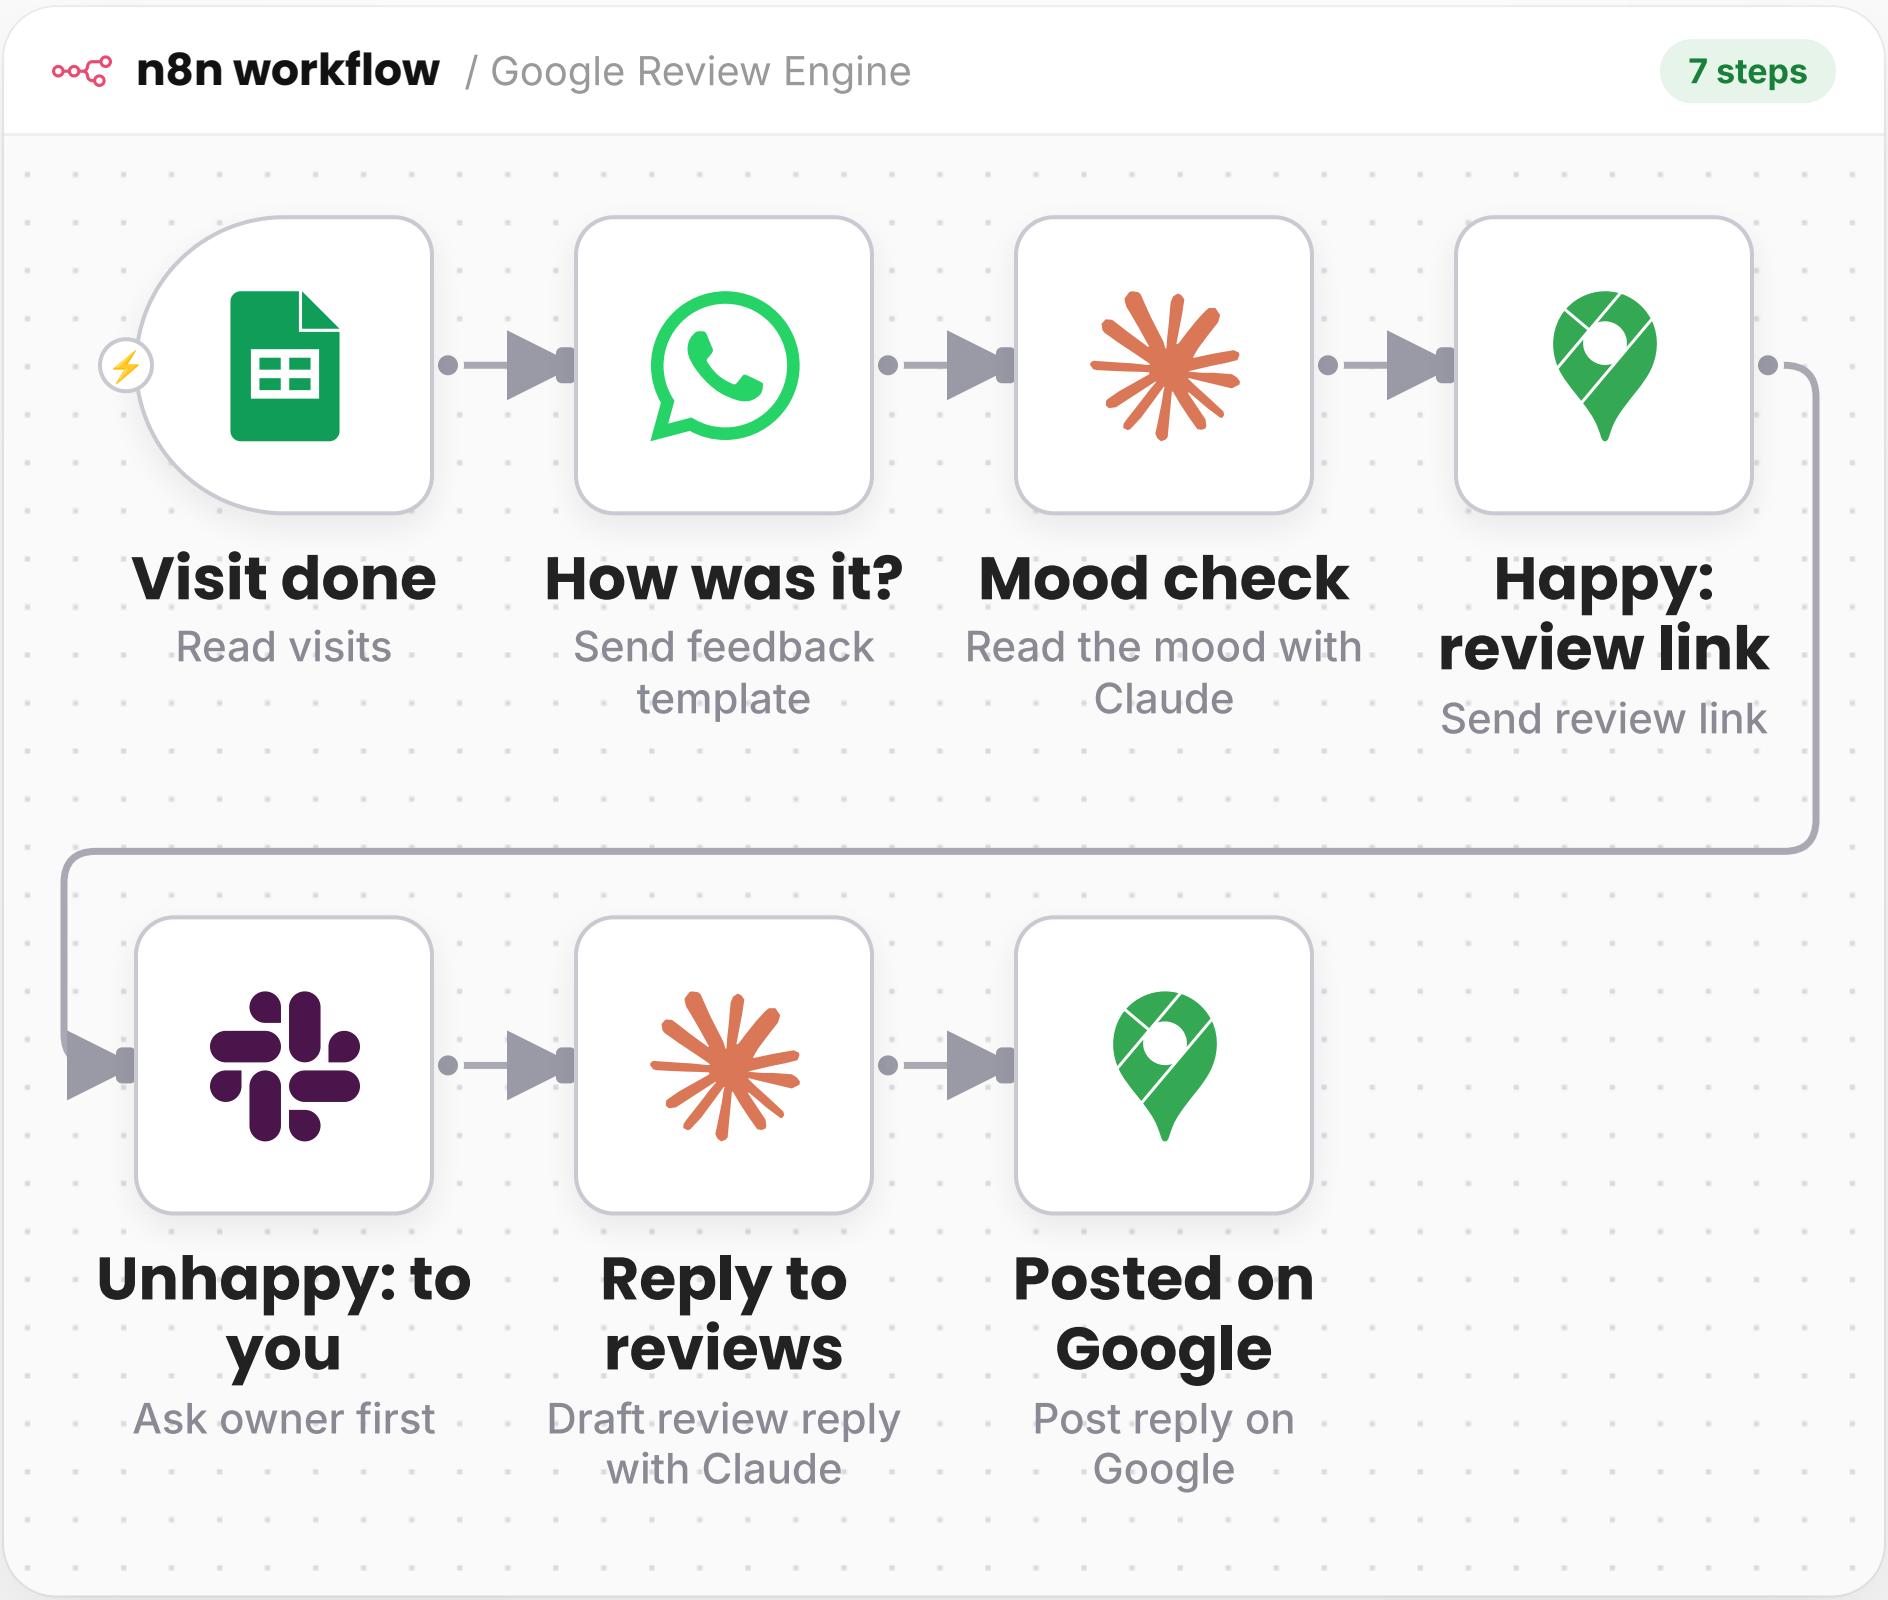

the happy ones never write

The Workflow

Google Review Engine

Every box below is a node in the free workflow.

Step 1

Ask after every visit

Every hour, n8n reads your Visits sheet and picks visits from 2 hours to 3 days ago that were not asked yet. Each gets a WhatsApp: How was it? Loved it, It was okay, Not happy.

Google Sheets

Visits

	Name	Service	Visited	Asked
1	Neha	Dinner, 4	7:15 PM	9:30 PM
2	Rahul	Lunch, 2	1:40 PM	4:00 PM
3	Priya	Takeaway	8:05 PM

feedback first, review later

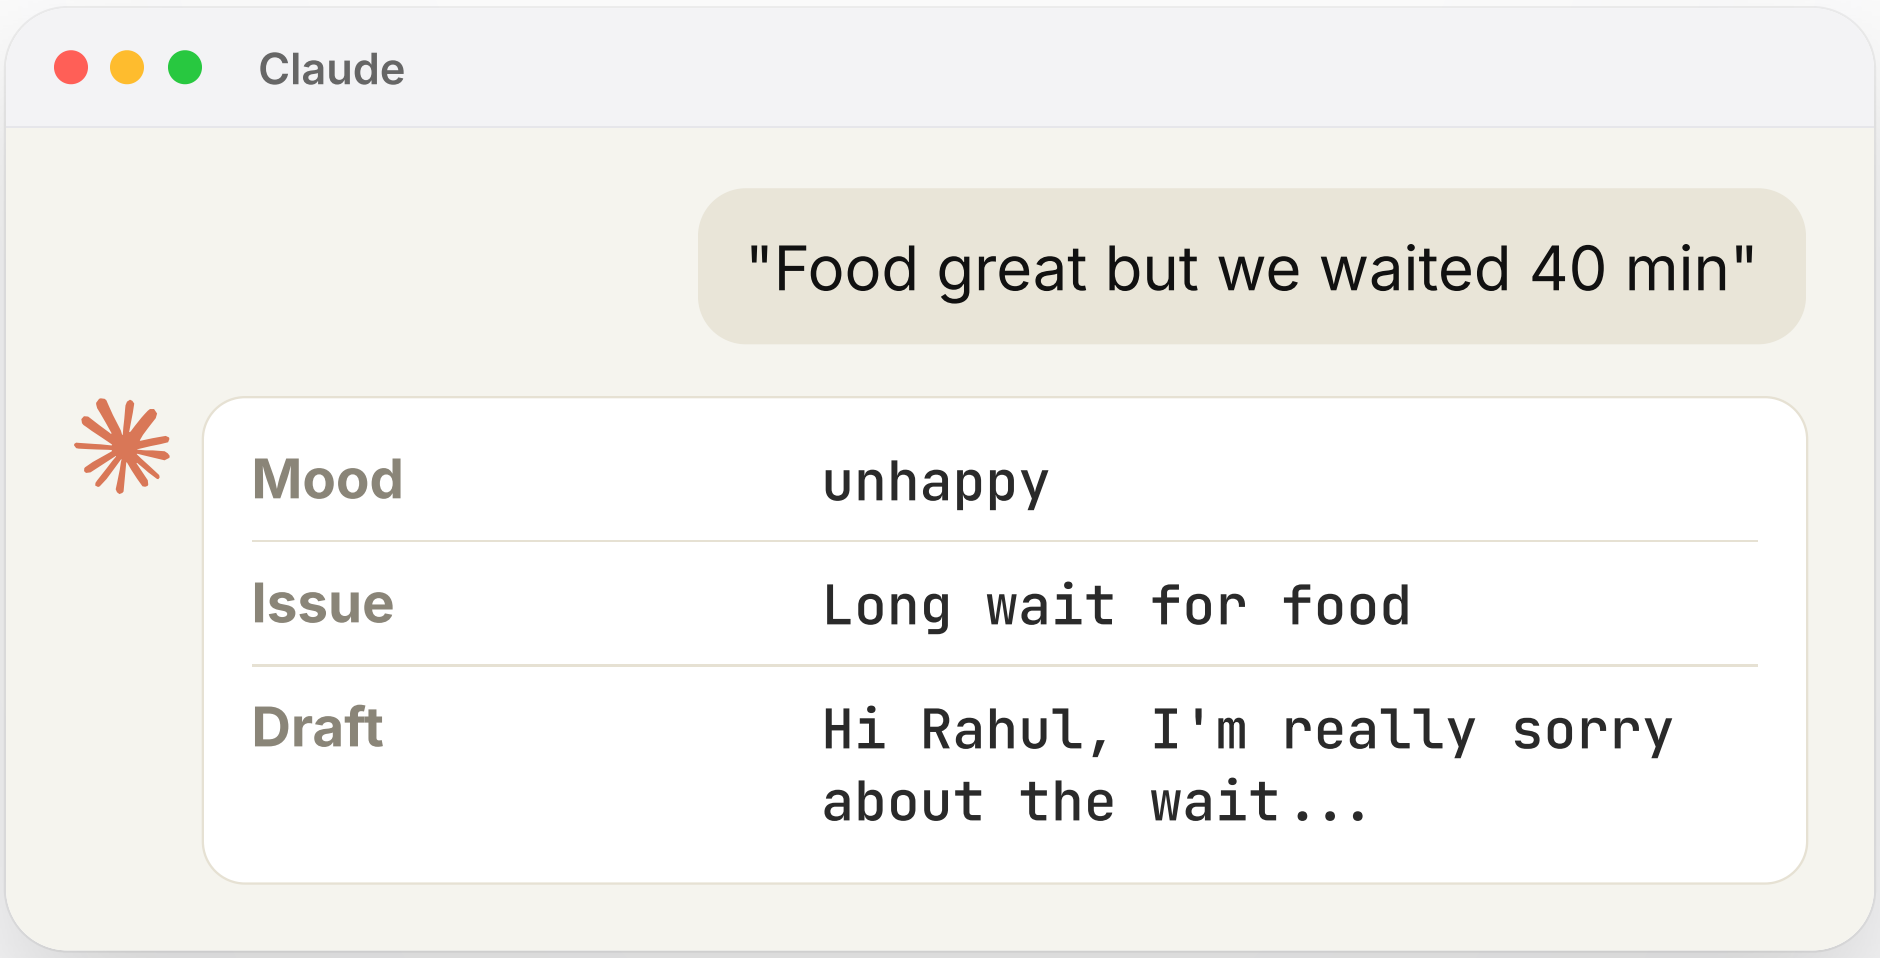

N8N NODES

Every hour → Read visits → Who to ask now → Send feedback template → Mark as asked

Step 2

Claude reads the reply

When they reply, by button or in their own words, Claude decides happy, neutral or unhappy, notes the issue, and drafts an apology if it is not good news.

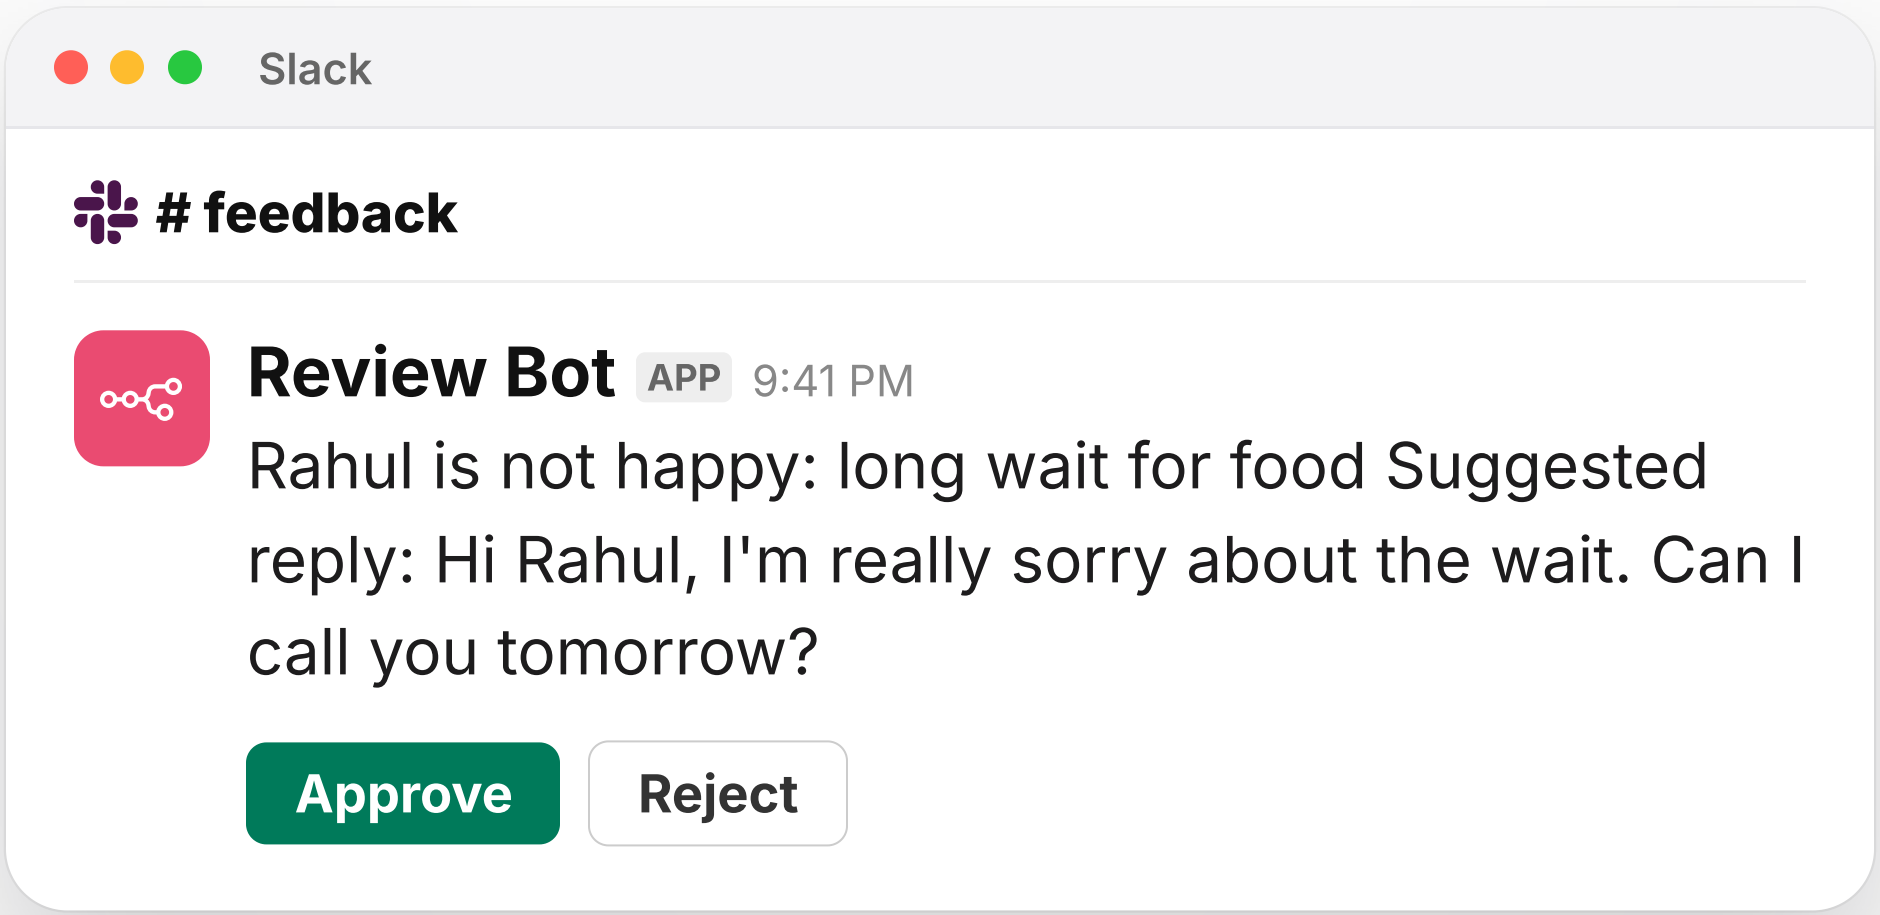

N8N NODES

WhatsApp Trigger → Clean up reply → Read the mood with Claude → Happy?

Step 3

Happy gets the link, unhappy gets you

Happy customers get a thank you and your review link. Anyone else reaches you in Slack first, with an apology draft. Approve sends it with the link. All logged.

fix it before it's a 1★

N8N NODES

Send review link

Ask owner first

Owner approved?

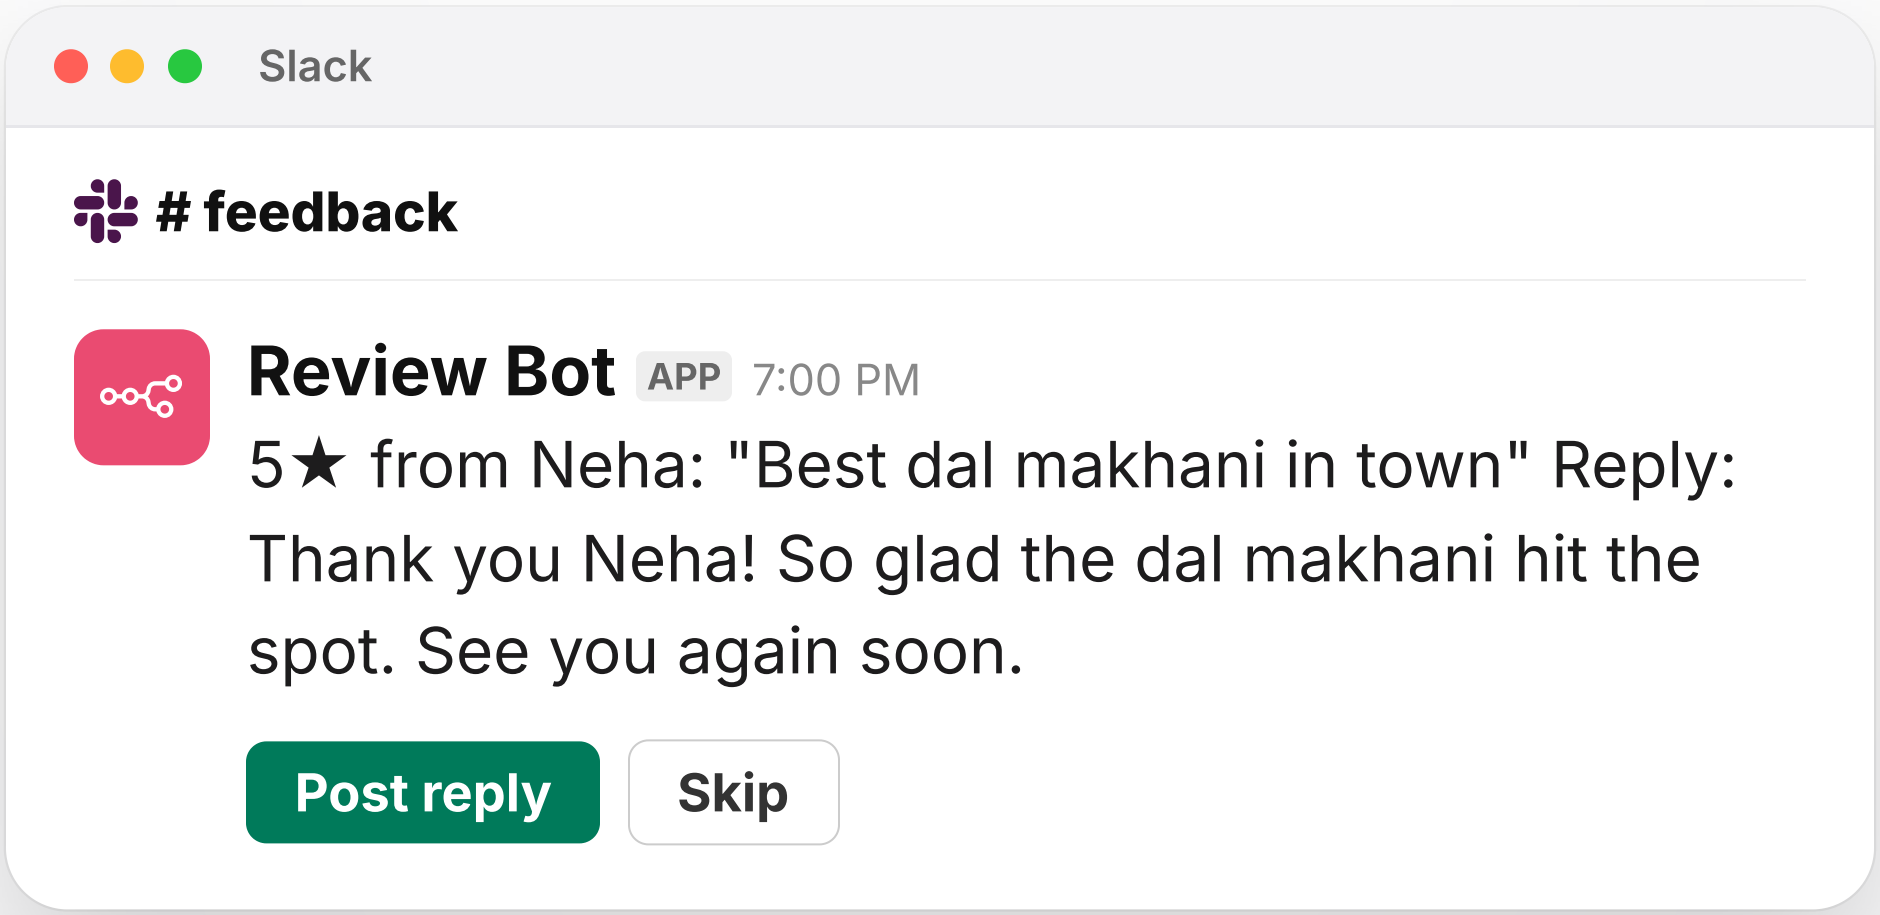

Send owner's reply

Log feedback

Step 4

Reply to every Google review

Every evening, n8n fetches new Google reviews without a reply. Claude drafts a warm, specific response. You tap Post reply in Slack and it goes live on Google.

N8N NODES

- Every evening
- Fetch Google reviews
- New reviews without a reply
- Draft review reply with Claude
- Approve review reply
- Review approved?
- Post reply on Google
- Alert: something failed

What Changes

Before and after the workflow

BEFORE

- Nobody asks for reviews
- Complaints land on Google
- Reviews left unanswered

AFTER

- Every visit gets a kind ask
- Complaints reach you first
- Every review gets a reply

STAYS HUMAN

Unhappy customers hear from you before anything else, and no apology or public reply goes out until you approve it.
