Step 1

Log Every Enquiry

Every WhatsApp or form enquiry becomes a row, with the date of the last message.

Sharma Traders	Invoice reader	Wed	Quiet 1 day
Kavya	Price list	Fri	Booked call

Step 2

Find the Quiet Ones

Once a day, n8n finds enquiries with no reply for 2 days.

IF · all conditions true

status = "open"

followups_sent < 2
```

Step 3

Write a Helpful Nudge

Claude reads the chat and adds something useful: an example, an answer, a next step.

Claude

Lead: Priya. Asked about a website with booking. We sent the price. Write a short, helpful follow-up. No pressure.

"Hi Priya 👋 Here are 2 booking sites we built for salons: makani.link/ex. Any questions I can answer?"

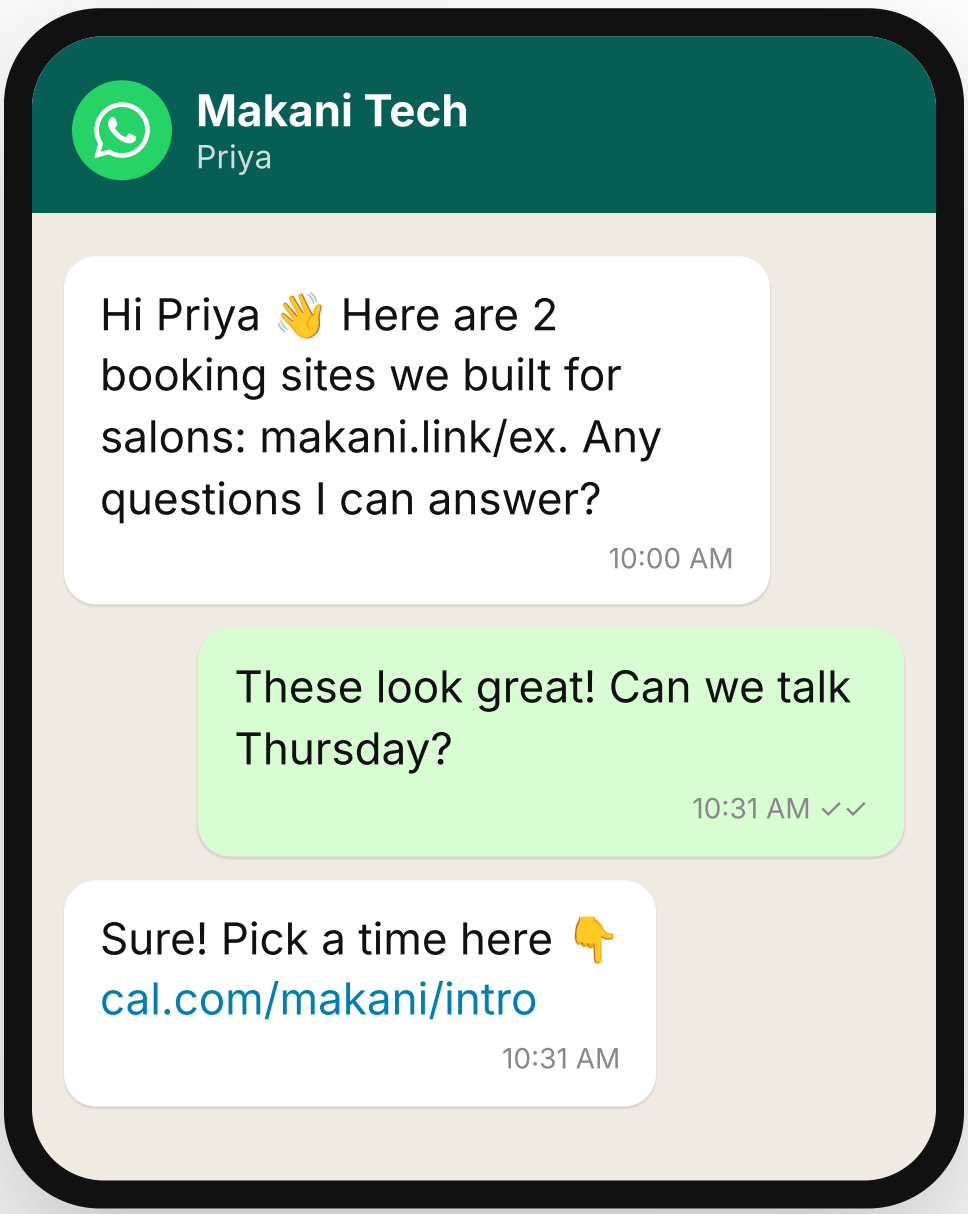

Useful, short, one question. No "just checking in".

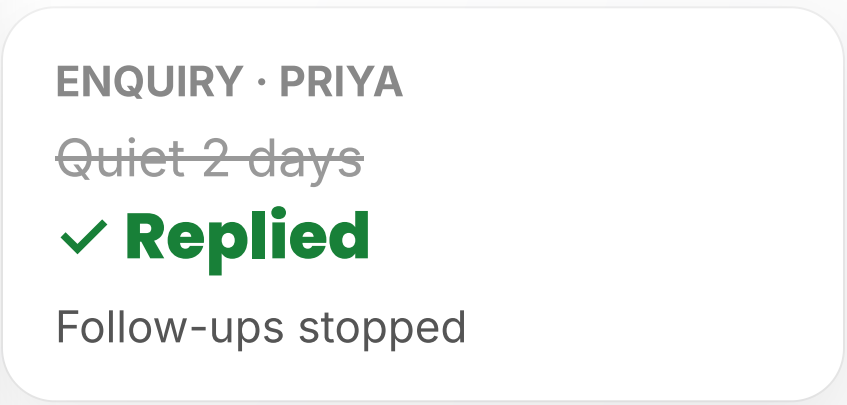

help, don't chase

Step 4

Stop When They Reply

Any reply marks the row Replied. No more automatic messages.

a reply ends the sequence

Step 5

Two Nudges, Then Let Go

Day 2 Helpful nudge: an example or an answer

Day 5 Last friendly check-in, easy to say no

Day 6 Marked closed. No more messages.

No worries if the timing is not right, Priya. I'll be here when you need it 🙂

Day 5
